Ok, so I know I haven't posted any new chapters in a long time and for that I'm sorry. I moved to live with my dad a couple months ago and I don't have Wi-Fi there sorry I can't make new chapters. I usually use my iPod to make stories so that doesn't help. But I promise to put up some new chapters over the rest of Christmas break.

I hope you all have a very Merry Christmas.

P.s. I might start a new story to it might not be about warrior cats but if I do please check it out.

Right now, I live in the country part of a small town and I love it out here. Hunting, fishing, not a lot of people. A town where everybody pretty much knows everybody. Anyway I'm rambling on, but PLEASE COMMENT AND VOTE.

Note - 11/14/21

Hello beautiful people,

I just wanted to say thank you to everyone that has ever used this generator! I love all of you.

The reason I am putting out this message is just because I've recently read a lot of your comments and noticed that some of the things in here are out of date. I started this book so long ago. Honestly, I don't remember when I made this book just that I was in high school, maybe middle school. I'm a full adult now, have been for a while, and I'm in college. What I will say is that I'm going to try to come back and update this book just so you guys can keep using it. I'm not sure if I'm going to put out more chapters or just update the ones already on here yet.
Also I might try to update the second name generator book so that it has more chapters and it's updated as well. It really just depends on my schedule.

Thank you guys so much for the love. i'll do my best to update soon.

Love,
-hk
